

UUC Board Meeting Agenda
April 11, 2024

We, the UUC Board, seek informed collaboration and clarity in our work of supporting UUC ministries. We interact with respect, trust, deep listening, and curiosity. We affirm one another, and maintain fierce dedication to diversity and inclusion in our commitment to the community we serve. We communicate directly and with courageous love. When it arises, we engage in productive conflict. We are focused, accountable, and authentic. We laugh together. We maintain the trust and confidentiality of board members' contributions and speak with one voice regarding board actions.

April 2024 Minister's Report to the Board
Submitted by Rev. Pam Philips

Leads Worship and Officiates Rites of Passage

Our March worship services focused on the value of Transformation. We had a fabulous Pledging Party service on March 17th that required an enormous amount of coordination and volunteer hours on the part of the Stewardship, Connections, Worship, Coffee, Piecemakers, the Men's and Women's Breakfast Groups, the Women's Lunch Group and the Choir. We had 130 people in the room and 31 computers online. The overall opinion is that we should have this kind of service again. We also had a service devoted to Conflict Transformation that included the participation of Nancy Bodenhorn and Molly Lazar from the Right Relations Team and an Easter service that acknowledged Transgender Day of Visibility with an excellent testimonial from Adam Magee. Our theme in April is Interdependence.

Provides Pastoral Care and Presence

In addition to meeting with the Surviving Spouses and Sages group, I've had pastoral meetings in the office, at health care facilities, at people's homes, and via email. The Lay Pastoral Care Ministry members have been busy supporting congregants. I'm especially grateful for support given some congregants who were at a hospital in another state; the UU minister there connected me to UU chaplains who were able to visit.

Encourages Spiritual Development for Self and Others

The four-session workshop on Article II hasn't started because two of the three people who signed up couldn't attend the first session. If there is not more interest in this class, we will cancel it. I will encourage anyone planning to attend UUA GA to register here.

Witnesses to Social Justice in the Public Square

We had over 130 people at UUC for the Defending Democracy event on March 28th, thanks in part to the article that Dan Casey wrote in the Roanoke Times. Thanks to organizers Jim Bohland, Bob Stimson, Mark Benson, Sara Dalton, and Jamie McReynolds for all their efforts. Dan Casey wrote a follow-up article after the event, and we have heard from UU's and others from across the state.

Leads Administration

We are onboarding the new administrator, Bekah Parker. Ericka will train her through the month of April. I introduced Bekah to the congregation on Sunday, and she has met with the Communications and Stewardship committees already.

The Stewardship pledge drive is nearly over. The Pledging Party was very successful in getting people excited and pledging. As of this moment, we have 147 pledges for $333,098, which is 87.89% of the way toward our goal of $379,000. We have 12 stewards making contact with people in the congregation who have not yet pledged, and I am hopeful that we will meet our goal. One of the highlights of the campaign in addition to the brunch service has been the extraordinary videos the committee created to inform the congregation about stewardship. They have been funny and informative.

We had a very well attended AED/CPR training on March 23rd, with over fifty people in attendance, and because we met the 35 participant goal, we've received a free AED device. I'm ordering a cabinet and wall sign, and the safety committee will be meeting to decide where to mount it. Thanks go to all who came for the training, and especially to Paula Markham for making it possible..

The Committee on Ministries is finalizing their report on the data from Feedback Groups on the Grounds Ministry.

The Grounds Committee is now under the capable leadership of Jim Flowers, so I didn't attend their meeting this month.

Rachel Craine and I have discussed having an “activities fair” after the service, and it makes sense to hold it on the last Sunday in April. Because we’ve had so many new folks come to services, we would like them to have the opportunity to learn more about the different committees and groups. I’m contacting leaders to ask them to have a sign and some snacks to put on tables in Elarth after the service. It would be good for the Board to have a table.

The Connections Committee is having a Newcomers’ Orientation on April 27th, and I’m looking forward to getting to know some of the new folks.

Serves the Larger Unitarian Universalist Faith and Leads the Faith into the Future

I continue to meet with the Blacksburg Ministerial Association, UU religious professionals, the NAACP Religious Affairs committee, and the Interfaith Book group.

I attended the SEUUMA (Southeast UU Ministerial Association) Spring Retreat virtually the first week of April and was elected to a two-year term as the president of the chapter.

This month I will be writing a final evaluation for our ministerial intern, Anna Tulou. I’ll be meeting with the ordination committee this Sunday and am excited that our former minister in Charlottesville, Rev. Erik Walker Wikstrom, will be delivering the sermon. I’m delighted that Anna has accepted a position as Assistant Minister at First Unitarian Universalist Church of Richmond, Virginia.

Time away from Blacksburg and UUC

April 15-16th – Charlottesville/Richmond for Joseph Jordan Cluster meeting

June – August Sabbatical

Administrator's Report to the Board
April 7, 2024

Departure and new administrator: My last day in office will be April 28th. I have been working closely with Bekah to pass over the procedures and files needed for the job. Bekah has been a joy to work with and I expect a smooth transition at the end of the month. This has been a cherished experience for me and I am grateful to everyone at UUC for their support and encouragement both as I arrived and as I depart.

Stewardship Update: I went to the stewardship meeting at the beginning of the month and discussed pledge thank you cards that will need to be made for the end of this year's stewardship campaign. Rev Pam and I have been working together to get pledges recorded.

ComCom Committee: met with the communications committee this month about the t-shirt contest and how we are going to move forward. A few ideas/designs were selected and we will work this month to turn the ideas into usable designs for a t shirt. Also introduced the group to new administrator, Bekah.

Attendance/Members: See the Attendance/Numbers Google doc.

DLFD Report to the Board – April 2024

Children and Youth Programs:

- Registration Numbers: Currently 61 families and 107 children have registered for 132 activity/positions in the 2023-24 year.
- Programming:
  - Children's RE is going well.
  - YRUU—has had a small but dedicated group of attendees this semester. They will be planning the bridging service for 3 of our seniors on May 12.
  - MSYG will be meeting at shadow lake for a game night this month.

Adult Programming:

- Building Bridges for Adults—will be studying religions of the 1800's and cults this week, followed by sessions on atheism and humanism.
- OWL for older adults continues to be well attended, with lots of positive feedback.
- Parent Covenant Group—will continue to meet on 3rd Fridays this year.
- Sunday Circle: ?? people attended the March 17 Sunday Circle (at 11:30) on Scotland and Norway, and 6 people attended the April 7 (8:30) presentation on Creativity with Mindy Quigley.
- 2 new adult classes begin this month—Mindfulness with Jamie and Spiritual Reflection on Article II with Pam.

Other DLFD Activites:

- The playground fencing has begun, with posts being placed and set this week. Hopefully work will be completed next week.
- I have been out sick since April 3—working some from home. Probably taking most of my sick days this month, though ☺
- Teacher recruitment for summer and fall have begun.
- I applied to enter the RE credentialing program, with the goal of being credentialed at the Advanced level by spring of 2027.
